2018 January Newsletter

Dear Teton Photography Group Member -

Happy New Year to everyone! Our theme for 2018 is "Creating Compelling Images." We have many wonderful things planned for the coming year and hope that you'll be able to participate with us whether it's attending one of our events in person or participating in our popular Photo Topic Thursday on the TPG's Facebook page. In December, we presented our annual Members' Needs Survey at our annual business meeting. Click here if you'd like to see a summary of results

We received over 60 images for consideration in our member exhibition to be held at the Teton County Library's gallery in March and April. If you submitted an image and it is selected for exhibition you'll be hearing from us later this month.

Join us on Monday, January 8 at 6pm for our monthly meeting when Paul

Podell will discuss strategies to getting the best images from your phone camera. You'll learn some great tips and have fun socializing with fellow photographers. The meeting will be held in the large upstairs conference room of Jackson Hole Real Estate Associates on 80 West Broadway in Jackson.

On Wednesday, January 10 at 6pm in the conference room at the Jackson Hole Art Association the Peer Mentor Group will meet for their monthly critique meeting. All are welcome!

The Peer Mentor Group is committed to developing a comfortable learning environment in which every question is respected, where everyone is at ease sharing their photographs for our critique, and where our goal is to help everyone improve their photography. If you would like to join the Peer Mentor Program or have questions, contact Randy Isaacson risaacso@iusb.edu for more information.

Winter critiques are back! Join us on Monday, January 15 at 6pm for the Teton Photography Group photo critique. Bring a couple of your favorite latest photos on a flash drive and have it kindly and constructively critiqued. The meeting will be held in the small upstairs conference room of Jackson Hole Real Estate Associates on 80 West Broadway in Jackson.

The TPG is looking for guest bloggers or people with an existing blog to add to our site. We're looking for writers who talk about photography in nearly any aspect: technical, artistic, business, philosophy, education, etc. If you have an active photography blog, send us your blog link and we'll syndicate. If you want to write about photography for the TPG, let us know at info@tetonphotographygroup.org and we'll set up an account for you. Get expanded exposure for your photographs, either to sell as prints or educational classes or anything else photo related.

Happy photographing!

Beth
