August 2018 Newsletter

Dear Teton Photography Group Member -

Happy August! While smoke is filling the air in the Tetons and elsewhere there are still opportunities to get some great images.

It's another short month activity wise so everyone can take advantage of the summer weather.

On Saturday, August 4 from 6-8pm at Mormon Row we are once again combining the regular TPC photo shoot with the Peer Mentor photo shoot. We'll be attending the Grand Teton Association's Artist in the Environment series. For more information, please visit www.grandtetonpark.org.

Then on Wednesday, August 8 at 6pm the regular TPC meeting and the Peer Mentor Group will be meeting in the conference room at the Art Association. This month's theme is black and white. All are welcome.

The Peer Mentor Group is committed to developing a comfortable learning environment in which every question is respected, where everyone is at ease sharing their photographs for our critique, and where our goal is to help everyone improve their photography. If you would like to join the Peer Mentor Program or have questions, contact Randy Isaacson risaacso@iusb.edu for more information.

Here's an update from the TPC president, Loren Nelson:

Updates from the Executive Committee

The Teton Photography Group is now officially the Teton Photography Club. We have updated our social media accounts and website to reflect the new name and have revised our email accounts. All members will receive a separate correspondence with the details.

The Exec Com is exploring the possibility of another winter Yellowstone trip. The details are just being sorted out at this time but look forward to announcement in the next 6-8 weeks. As always, participation will be limited so if you are interested, respond promptly to the announcement.

We are delighted to welcome two new members to the TPC Executive Committee. Rachael Dunlop and Tim Libassi have been active participants in the Peer Mentor Group and have accepted our invitation to work with the club leadership. Both are enthusiastic local photographers who share our vision for the organization. They replace Moose Henderson who has moved away to pursue a career in medicine and pathology and Lisa Ridgway who is stepping back from the Exec Com but will join our TPC Advisory Board. We wish the retiring members the best, thank them for their service, and hope you will welcome our new members Rachael and Tim.

Finally, with Moose Henderson's departure, we have reached out to Exec Com member, David Navratil to take over the very popular Facebook Photo Thursday \(FPT\) activities. FPT allows members to share images for comment along a weekly theme. I hope everyone who uses Facebook will follow along and share their images as David provides new weekly themes.

Have a great August!
