NEWS FROM THE TETON PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

October 2020

Dear Member,

Welcome to October! There's still some fall color left in the Tetons if you know where to look. We've got some great things lined up for you this month.

Member Photo Spotlight

This month's image is from David Navratil! Those colors are amazing.

Would you like to see your picture featured? We'd love to include your image in the monthly newsletter. Every month I'll select a photo submitted by one of our awesome members. To submit, email me at news@tetonphotographyclub.org

Include the photo, your name, shooting data, and a few sentences about your image.

Happenings

- Wednesday, October 21, 6pm: This month's meeting is Creativity in Quarantine.

With the world in the grip of a pandemic, the likes of which we haven't seen in over a century, it can be easy to despair. Yet, despite—or perhaps because of—the anxiety, panic, and fear we're all grappling with, we human beings are driven to create.

If you can tear your eyes away from the daunting news headlines, you'll see explosive creativity everywhere you look: in how people stuck at home are constructing elaborate recreations of their favorite artworks for the #GettyChallenge; or how we make ways to connect—whether it's singing from our balconies or happy hour delivery via drones—while social distancing; even in the acerbic memes and uplifting stories flooding social media to offer inane distractions and inspire hope during this crisis.

Yet for many others, this has been a time of creative drought. Many have been unable to find the creative spark among the stress of mask-wearing, hand-washing and physical-distancing.

Join us as we gather to discuss how the COVID pandemic has impacted your creative juices. Have you been prolific or had nothing to shoot? Have you felt inspired or stale? Everyone has dealt with the crisis differently and as photographers, let's share how it's affected us.

We'll have a Zoom session and everyone will have mics open and can share. We'll also have 8 panelists who each will talk about how they have fared and what photography projects they've worked on.

It will be fun and collaborative. Join us to participate or just observe.

- Wednesday, October 28, 7pm: Virtual Peer Mentor Meeting. This month's theme is Telephoto Landscape. Both peer mentor groups will meet via the video meeting software, Zoom. Instructions will be mailed to members of these groups.

The Peer Mentor Program pages on the TPC website (<https://tetonphotographyclub.org/our-groups/peer-mentor-program/>) share the goals and history of the program, the monthly themes with articles, a photo gallery from past monthly theme winners, and a special page for "How to Become a Monthly Peer Mentor." If you are an amateur photographer who is committed to improving his/her photography you might want to contact Randy Isaacson (events@tetonphotographyclub.org) about joining.

The Peer Mentor Program had their Virtual Peer Mentor September meeting with a Weather Challenge. There were lots of great photos submitted. Here are the top three:

Beth Holmes, 1st

Sue Lurie, 2nd

Charlotte Kidd, 3rd

Annual Winter Yellowstone Trip

It is with regret that the board of the Teton Photography Club has voted to cancel the annual Yellowstone trip. The decision was made out of an abundance of caution towards everyone's health and safety. We appreciate your understanding.

From the President

Fall is finally here and the colors have been great with some places getting bare and others still green.

The Covid virus continues to make life challenging for everyone but we are going to make it the theme of this month's meeting. If you are having trouble motivating yourself to pick up your camera join us Wednesday, October 21st. It will be an opportunity to listen and share ideas on photography during this pandemic.

Stay safe and happy shooting,

David Navratil
