

August 2022

TPC Monthly Meeting
Saturday 3:00pm
August 20th, 2022
In Person Photo Shoot

August Meeting
Brooks Lake, Dubois Wyoming
Saturday August 20, 2022
3PM

Brooks Lake, Dubois, Wyoming August 20, 2022.

Where? Brooks Lake, Dubois, Wyoming 43.756349, -110.003757

When? Saturday August 20, 2022, at 3 pm (for 4 pm running of the horses). Camp overnight to shoot the sunrise or hike to Jade Lake along the Continental Divide Trail on Sunday August 21, 2022.

Spend the afternoon photographing the fireweed that surrounds the shore of Brooks Lake with the spectacular Pinnacles and Breccia Cliffs as a backdrop. Witness the running of the horses from Brooks Lake Lodge as they canter down the hiking trails to graze on greener pastures.

Brooks Lake is located in Dubois, a 90-minute drive from Jackson, Wyoming. Hugged by the spectacular PinnacleRange to the east and the Breccia Cliffs to the west, the lake is just beyond Togwotee Pass and at the end of a 9-mile unsealed road (Forest Road)

Camping:

1) Falls Campground • 42 single sites, not reservable, light usage • Adjacent to Brooks Lake Creek Falls

<https://tinyurl.com/33r4tjyk>

2) Brooks Lake Campground • 13 single sites, not reservable, heavy usage

<https://tinyurl.com/nhnmsa9k>

3) Pinnacles Campground • 21 single sites, heavy usage, not reservable

<https://tinyurl.com/3fasn9vz>

• best vault toilet in the West

RSVP to Chair@TetonPhotographyClub.org Let us know if you plan to attend.

Next Month
We will resume in-person meetings.

The Teton County Library has selected TPC as one of the local organizations to host their meetings.

Our September Meeting will be via Zoom and in person at the TCL.

Member Photo Spotlight

Peer Mentor Program

The PMP theme for July was Black and White Landscape.

The four photos that earned second place were diverse but also had a similarity with one exception. Louis Brad's photo was a close-up of the moon with conifer trees in the foreground. The moon has striking details, and the conifers give depth to the photo.

Each of the other three photos that earned 2nd place had a strong sky; two photos were taken in a storm, and one was beautiful white clouds in a dark sky.

Ben Nardi's photo in Montana is an excellent example of the wide open spaces of the West. The storm cells in the sky grab your attention, but they probably never gave the land the rain it needed. The photos by Becky Hawkins and Charlotte Kidd may both have been taken on the same day, another photo of a potential storm that never really hit Jackson Hole. Becky's photo includes a rainbow (without any color), and Charlotte's view may minimize the mountains but sends a message that you should look down on the Teton Range.

And the winning B&W Landscape photo was a view of a sunset over a small creek. The tones and contrast of the sky to the mountains to the sunset reflection in the creek are a great example of how a B&W Landscape photo can pull you into the picture ... and keep you there with a feeling for the sunset.

Ist Place Sue Lurie

2nd Place Tie Ben Nardi

2nd Place Tie Charlotte Kidd

2nd Place Tie Becky Hawkins

2nd Place Tie Louis Brad

Would you like to see your picture featured? We'd love to include your image in the monthly newsletter. Every month I'll select a photo submitted by one of our awesome members. To submit, email me at news@tetonphotographyclub.org. Include the photo, your name, shooting data, and a few sentences about your image.

From the President

Members,

Teton County Library has graciously selected us as one of the organizations to host meetings in their facility. This will be a great venue for the club and allow us to host in-person meetings as well as simultaneously using Zoom.

Using their facility will mean that our meetings will be on the 3rd Tuesday of each month beginning in September.

This month we will be doing our second photo shoot and social.

I want to thank Rachael Dunlop and Karyn Schiller for organizing this event.
I also want to thank Beth Holmes for her help with securing the Teton County Library as our new meeting venue.

Happy shooting!

David Navratil